

East Coast Sage Circle Membership Policy

Business Area of Responsibility: Board of Directors, Regional Counsels.

Author: Secretary

Status: Approved January 18, 2009

Policy:

East Coast Sage Circle Inc. (ECSC) is a membership organization.

Procedure: How to become a member.

A member is a woman who has completed the Women Within Training Weekend (WWTW) and resides in:

- One of the ECSC territories as identified in the licensing agreement with Woman Within International. (WWI)
- Resides in and may be a member of another territory who elects to become a member of ECSC by notifying ECSC.

Purpose:

The purpose of this policy is to define membership in ECSC and the benefits therein open to all members.

Benefits:

- Membership is free, however, members may be solicited for donations.
- Lifetime membership in ECSC unless you notify the ECSC Administrator otherwise.
- Full access to ECSC member WEB site.
- Eligibility to staff WW training weekends worldwide after successfully completing the WWTW, successfully completing the One Day Staff Training and following WWI training protocol.
- Eligibility to be a member of an Empowerment Circle (E-Circle)
- Eligibility to attend ECSC Community Weekend.
- Access to further leadership training.
- Access to ECSC Community events.
- Access to further personal growth workshops.
- Opportunity to serve in leadership positions